Paraphrase the following lines into simple English with reference to the context:

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

Ans Reference to the Context:

These lines have been taken from the poem "Stopping by the Woods on a Snowy Evening". The poem was composed by an American poet of fame, Robert Frost by name. These lines make up the third stanza of the poem. The speaker stops his pony between a forest and a frozen lake. It is a snowy evening. The speaker knows whose woods they are. But the master of the woods is unaware that someone is standing there beside his woods. So the speaker is enjoying the beauty of nature. The pony is thinking it strange to stop there when no farmhouse is visible. Now these lines of the poem enter.

Explanation:

The poet tells that the pony shakes his harness bells to know if their stay is justified. The sounds of gentle wind and falling of soft flakes are heard. The speaker is still lost in the charming beauty of nature.

There were potfuls of foodstuffs with tasty sauce neatly arranged on big tables. Sizzling pakoras, fruit-chat, shami kababs and chicken sticks were in great demand.
